1898.

PREFACE.

Vols. I. and II. are thin parchment folios of the usual type, the latter unbound. The Register is in several different handwritings, and in many places very illegible. To the end of the Mariages 1636, the transcript is verbatim and literatim. The rest is a careful copy, omitting such words as "daughter of," "was baptized," &c., and placing d. for daughter, s. for son, Bapt. for "was baptized," &c.

Vol. III. is also a parchment folio, written in some places by an evidently very illiterate scribe. Inside the cover at the end is written "Mem. Fir Trees at y^e Top of y^e Close were given by M^r Boawre Rect^r of Kirkton; those on y^e Northside of y^e Gate were planted Anno Domⁱ 1733 by me, Rich^d Jackson, Vic^r of Walesby."

The monumental inscriptions inside the Church will be found in Jewitt's Reliquary, vol. xiv, page 187.

Where words are printed in italics the reading is doubtful owing to defects in the MS.

THE Parish Register Society.

SECOND ANNUAL REPORT.

THE Council, in presenting its second Annual Report, has much pleasure in stating that the work of the Society progresses satisfactorily.

During the year 1897 six more Registers have been issued, namely :—

Stratford-upon-Avon (Baptisms)	...	co. Warwick.
St. Nicholas, Ipswich	,, Suffolk.
Upton	,, Berks.
Haydon	,, Lincoln.
Newendon	,, Kent.
Kirk Ella	,, Yorks.

It must be borne in mind that the work of the Society done during any year should not be judged solely by the number of volumes issued, since every one of them differs in size. The most trustworthy plan is to ascertain what number of pages have been printed, and it will, perhaps, surprise subscribers to know that no less than 936 pages have been given to them during the past year in return for their guinea subscription.

It is believed that only one other society in the Kingdom (The British Record Society) can at all compare with this splendid result.

When it is remembered that the number of subscribers is under 200, the Council believes that still more striking results will be achieved in the future as the list of subscribers increases.

The financial position of the Society, likewise, is a source of considerable satisfaction to the Council, for after all expenses have been paid, there remains only a small adverse balance with which to commence the year 1898.

During 1897 three societies for printing Parish Registers have been started, namely, the Shropshire Parish Register Society, the Lancashire Parish Register Society, and the Durham and Northumberland Parish Register Society. To these societies the Council offers its congratulations, and trusts they will meet with success, feeling that every attempt to put the contents of the Registers throughout the Kingdom beyond the reach of utter destruction is much to be desired.
